

Help shape the future of regional active transportation in South Jersey!

The South Jersey Transportation Planning Organization (SJTPO) is developing the Regional Active Transportation Plan for Atlantic, Cape May, Cumberland, and Salem Counties. This plan aims to make South Jersey safer, healthier, and more accessible for everyone who travels without a car. This includes people walking or using mobility aids, riding bicycles or scooters, and those who get around by skateboarding, rollerblading, and other non-motorized options.

Everyone in the region deserves safe, reliable choices for getting where they need to go. By expanding and improving active transportation options, the plan supports affordable, healthy, and environmentally friendly ways for people to move throughout South Jersey.

Current Engagement Opportunities:

Join us for a Public Workshop! Tell us what works well and what makes it hard to get around the SJTPO region. This open house style workshop will include map and poster stations to draw and write your ideas, along with a short presentation. There are two workshop locations - Vineland, NJ and Pleasantville, NJ.
